Millennial coverage abounds

By John Crook
TVDATA FEATURES WRITER

Cover story

If you're one of those "millennial purists" who insists — with some pretty compelling justification — that the third millennium doesn't actually begin for another year, you're in good company.

But while you and your buddies perform your little "superior dance," the rest of the world will be partying, well, like it's 1999.

As the Christian calendar "rolls over" to the year 2000, networks and cable channels plan a wide spectrum of special coverage, beginning as early as the predawn hours of Friday, Dec. 31, with a special hourlong edition of "Politically Incorrect" on ABC.

In addition to a variety of comedy sketches, host Bill Maher moderates a rotating panel of current celebrities, including Tom Arnold and Arianna Huffington, juxtaposed with other stars playing historical figure.

Just a few hours later, in the predawn hours of New Year's Eve, ABC News anchor Peter Jennings sets up shop overlooking New York's Times Square to begin the network's ambitious 23-hour "ABC 2000" special, featuring news anchors, correspondents and entertainers in a global landscape of celebrations.

As usual, veteran "New Year's Rockin' Eve" emcee Dick Clark will host the Times Square festivities as midnight approaches there, but the day also includes performances by Billy Joel from Madison Square Garden; rock group Aerosmith in Osaka, Japan; Bonnie Raitt in California; and a special performance by Ray Charles.

Not to be outdone by any stretch, PBS launches a programming lineup early Friday morning with its 25-hour "PBS Millennium 2000" telecast.

Each of the 25 hours will include seven or eight segments alternating between countries and continents, day and night. Additionally, producers are planning to capture significant "last" and "first" events of the respective millennia, including births and weddings.

The remaining three commercial U.S. networks have somewhat less ambitious plans, although NBC has an expanded Friday edition of "Today" anchored by Katie Couric and Tom Brokaw. On Friday night, NBC will present a special edition of "Dateline NBC" focused on what Americans can expect in the new millennium, followed by a live two-hour prime-time millennium special from Times Square with Brokaw and Couric.

CBS likewise has a "Y2K News Desk" on duty Friday to report any breaking millennial news. Friday night will see a prime-time special edition of "The Late Show With David Letterman," followed by "America's Millennium: A Celebration," a three-hour "block party" hosted by Will Smith and a high-profile guest list that includes Trisha Yearwood, Muhammad Ali and operatic soprano Jessye Norman.

That same evening, Fox presents "Fox 2000," a 90-minute special with correspondents covering events from around the world.

Walker's return to 'Profiler' doubtful

By Taylor Michaels
TVDATA FEATURES WRITER

What happened to the actress who played Dr. Samantha Waters on NBC's "Profiler"? Will she be back on the show? -S. Wilson, Newark, Ohio.

Actress Ally Walker bailed out of "Profiler" after three seasons to pursue a more lucrative (and relaxed) career in films and TV movies. I heard things got pretty tense behind the scenes of her show before she won release from her contract. I would say the chances of her returning are nil.

There is a new movie about the life of Andy Kaufman in movie theaters. Can you remind me when and how this great actor died? I used to love him on "Taxi." -J. Patterson via e-mail.

The iconoclastic actor, who is portrayed by Jim Carrey in Milos Forman's new "Man on the Moon," died of lung cancer on May 16, 1984. He was 35 years old.

Pipeline

Could you provide the names of the actors who played the wagon master on "Wagon Train"? -Virginia Miller, Dunnellan, Fla.

When the series premiered on NBC on Sept. 18, 1957, Ward Bond starred as Maj. Seth Adams, a role he played until his death late in 1960. (Bond also starred in John Ford's "Wagon Master," the 1950 film on which the series was based.)

On March 15, 1961, new wagon master Chris Hale, played by John McIntire, was introduced. McIntire stayed with the show through its final episode on Sept. 5, 1965.

How can brand-new shows such as "Once and Again" and "Law & Order: Special Victims Unit" broadcast on both network TV and cable? And why? -Shelby Ash, San Francisco.

In a word, money. As networks face a shrinking share of the audience and production costs continue to rise, TV producers are exploring new ways to spread around the costs of making their shows. You'll probably see more of this in the future.

Ally Walker
'PROFILER'

I say Martin Sheen's real last name is Estevez. My boyfriend insists that it is Sheen, like his son Charlie. -Renee Friedhofer, Lancaster, Pa.

The star of "The West Wing" was born Ramon Estevez, a last name retained by actor sons Emilio and Ramon Estevez and daughter Renee Estevez. Son Charlie followed dad's example and changed his name.

Please help us recall the name of a '70s sitcom set in a Chicago restaurant and starring Ann Jillian as one of several waitresses. -Mary Ann E. Williams, Concord, N.C.

Jillian played worldly waitress Cassie Cranston in "It's a Living," which actually premiered on ABC in 1980. It subsequently enjoyed a healthy run in first-run syndication.

SUNDAY'S BEST BETS

Movie: Wild America
6 P.M. ON ABC

In 1967, armed with a movie camera and a dream, three brothers from Arkansas cross the country getting up close and personal with alligators, bears, moose and other critters. Scott Bairstow stars as eldest brother Marty Stouffer, who grew up to host the long-running PBS series "Wild America." Devon Sawa plays middle sib Mark, who is one of the film's producers. Jonathan Taylor Thomas plays the youngest, Marshall, who narrates the movie and gets to perform some of its best heroics.

Biography
7 P.M. ON A&E

"Irving Berlin: An American Song" chronicles the long and extraordinary life of America's quintessential songwriter — who wasn't born in America and couldn't read music. His songs are the soundtrack of a nation, from "God Bless America" and "Blue Skies" to "Easter Parade" and "White Christmas." The two-hour profile includes interviews with Broadway stars Bernadette Peters and Mandy Patinkin, Berlin's three daughters, and numerous family, friends and colleagues.

Family Guy
7:30 P.M. ON FOX

The animated sitcom with the supersmart dog and the megalomaniac baby makes a wacky comeback with "DaBoom." Fearing the worst as Y2K approaches, Peter (voice of Seth MacFarlane) orders everyone to hit the basement. Sure enough, it's a very different world that greets them after the big calendar change.

Carol Burnett and Walter Matthau
THE MARRIAGE FOOL

Movie: The Marriage Fool
8 P.M. ON CBS

Walter Matthau stars as an elderly widower who finds romance but alienates his grown children, who cannot accept the new woman (Carol Burnett) in his life. It's especially hard on his oldest son (John Stamos), a lifelong commitment-phobe who's been blindsided by the unfamiliar urge to settle down with his own love interest.

Movie: While You Were Sleeping
8 P.M. ON NBC

Chicago transit worker Lucy (Sandra Bullock) worships Mr. Right (Peter Gallagher) from afar. She saves him from a brutal mugging, and while he lies comatose, Lucy takes the opportunity to indulge her fantasies, passing herself off to his friends and family as his fiancee. But what would a romantic comedy be without complications? They arrive in the form of her dream man's brother, Jack (Bill Pullman), with whom Lucy falls head-over-heels in love.

Movie: The Fisher King
8 P.M. ON TBS

Radio shock jock Jack Lucas (Jeff Bridges), down in the dumps for years over giving a listener deadly advice, is about to end it all. He's saved from himself by a manic street person (Robin Williams) who wants his help finding the Holy Grail.

Raphael readies for the year

By Lorri Antosz Benson
TVDATA FEATURES WRITER

This is it: the last week of the century and a good time to look back on talk show happenings in 1999.

Roseanne surprised everyone by offering to pose nude for a painting on a Virgin Airlines airplane. NBC surprised her — and probably fatally wounded her show — when it stopped airing her program in its biggest markets.

Lisa Ling calmed the waters on "The View" after ABC's rather public release of predecessor Debbie Matenopoulos.

Dr. Joy Browne hobbled around barefoot for a few days, hosting the show with a broken toe.

Howie Mandel bowed out early, but not before Richard Simmons, whose "Dream Maker" was canceled just two months after premiering.

Jerry Springer toned things down — sort of — and "Jenny Jones" pledged to appeal after a $25 million verdict found the show liable for the death of a guest.

Oprah Winfrey started 1999 by joining forces with TV powerhouse and former Nickelodeon head

Talk the Talk

Geraldine Laybourne, creating a new cable network called Oxygen.

The morning shows began their showdown in earnest, with CBS making its most powerful effort to date, bringing in heavyweight veteran Bryant Gumbel to even up the odds.

It would be hard to forget the hilarious "Craft Challenge" Rosie O'Donnell made to Sally Jessy Raphael after Raphael said she wasn't the "glue gun and doily" type.

Raphael also found 500 viewers who were willing to let her find them spouses. After narrowing the field to four couples, the show married them on the spot. Given the option to legalize the marriage, one couple actually went through with it — definitely a talk show first!

Raphael is among those who think the year 2000 is too big to throw just any party, and she intends to ring it in right.

Her full-fledged Venetian-themed celebration is inspired by the Carnival of 1900 in Venice, Italy, and her country home will have a candle-lit porch, magnificently decorated with fresh flowers.

Sally Jessy Raphael

Guests are asked to arrive wearing masks. Throughout the evening, musicians, jugglers, dancers and magicians will weave their way through the crowd savoring a delicious menu.

At the momentous striking of midnight, fireworks will be shot off, and a huge bonfire will accent their display. Guests will also be feted with champagne and chocolate truffles.

"Sally's pulling out all the stops," says spokeswoman Lee Fryd. "She wants it to be a special night for the people with whom she feels closest."

TIME OF YOUR LIFE

Movie: Clueless
7 P.M. ON HBO

Jane Austen's "Emma" comes to 1990s Beverly Hills, Calif., in the person of Cher (Alicia Silverstone), a good-hearted but airheaded teen who has a real knack for straightening out other people's love lives but remains oblivious to what's best for her own. Stacey Dash, Brittany Murphy, Paul Rudd and Dan Hedaya also star in this 1995 comedy, which spawned a popular TV series.

Everybody Loves Raymond
8 P.M. ON CBS

Something has come over Frank (Peter Boyle). He's in a good mood all the time, even expressing all kinds of interest in Ray's (Ray Romano) work and otherwise acting like a devoted dad. Debra (Patricia Heaton) thinks it's age, and Marie (Doris Roberts) fears it's an affair, but Ray finds out the reason is something completely different in the encore of "You Bet."

Person of the Century
9 P.M. ON CBS

And the nominees are ... two crusaders, two very different world leaders and one great thinker. The network wraps up its "People of the Century" collaboration with "Time" magazine by unveiling a joint editorial board's choice for most influential person of the past 100 years. It took some doing, but the field has been narrowed to five finalists: Martin Luther King Jr., Mahatma Gandhi, Franklin D. Roosevelt, Adolf Hitler and Albert Einstein.

TUESDAY'S BEST BETS

JAG
7 P.M. ON CBS

Harm (David James Elliott) finds himself on the same side as Lt. Cmdr. Mic Brumby (Trevor Goddard), not one of his favorite people, when Lt. Andy Buxton insists both men represent him at his court-martial for killing Russian peacekeepers in Kosovo. The circumstances also prevent Harm from testifying against Buxton at the trial, which is being closely watched by both the Navy and the Russians. Catherine Bell also stars in the encore of "Rules of Engagement."

Hollywood's Hot Wheels
7 P.M. ON AMC

Adam West ("Batman") narrates a fascinating, fact-filled but not too fast-paced hour tracing our changing relationship with cars and how it's been reflected in the movies and TV. From Keystone Kop-filled jalopies to the gadget-filled sports cars of James Bond and "Knight Rider," it leans heavily on the reminiscences of the customizers who built many of the screen's most memorable cars. Filmmaker Roger Corman shares his memories of the hot-rod mania of the '50s, an era that produced a passel of low-budget, high-action car flicks.

Movies: Platoon/Born on the Fourth of July
7 P.M. ON MAX

Two real-life stories inspired Oliver Stone's two very different takes on the Vietnam War. The first, starring Charlie Sheen in a role based on Stone himself, earned critical acclaim for its realistic portrayal of that chaotic conflict and won four Oscars, including best picture and best director. Stone took home the directing Oscar again in for his biography of Ron Kovic, the gung-ho Marine paralyzed in the war who became one of its most outspoken opponents. Tom Cruise stars.

That '70s Show
7:30 P.M. ON FOX

President Gerald Ford is coming to town. What to do: dress up, or dress way down? Bob (Don Stark) opts for the former and tries to persuade Donna and Midge (Laura Prepon, Tanya Roberts) to show up in flashy jumpsuits emblazoned with his store's logo. The boys plan to disrupt things by "Streaking," but only one of them actually ends up in his birthday suit.

American Justice
9 P.M. ON A&E

The February report "A Teen-Age Murder Mystery" revisits a case that continues to cause consternation in Pennsylvania's bucolic Lancaster County. In 1991, Lisa Michelle Lambert, 19, was accused, along with her boyfriend and another girl, of killing an alleged romantic rival. The victim's mother claims the dying girl's last words were "Michelle did it," making a strong case for the guilty verdict Lambert received, but allegations of police and prosecutorial misconduct — including Lambert's contention that she was raped by three policemen — have kept the case tied up in knots ever since her 1992 conviction.

WEDNESDAY'S BEST BETS

Movie: Nine Months
7 P.M. ON FOX

Hugh Grant stars in this 1995 comedy as a happy-go-lucky young psychiatrist whose carefree life is thrown into disarray when his girlfriend (Julianne Moore) announces she is pregnant. Robin Williams almost steals the show as a goofy gynecologist, despite a shortage of screen time for the character. Jeff Goldblum, Joan Cusack and Tom Arnold also star.

Dawson's Creek
7 P.M. ON WB

Eve (Brittany Daniel) follows in the footsteps of her biblical namesake, offering her friends some juicy temptation. It's not an apple this time; it's a peek at a very important standardized test that everyone will be taking soon. When the test actually turns up stolen, though, Dawson (James Van Der Beek) has more suspicions about Pacey (Joshua Jackson) than Eve. Katie Holmes also stars.

Biography
7 P.M. ON A&E

"Donald O'Connor: Make 'em Laugh" profiles the singer, actor and dancer whose literally off-the-wall hoofing was a highlight of "Singin' in the Rain." Classic-comedy fans may remember him best as the human co-star of another "hoofer," Francis the Talking Mule, in several '50s flicks, but O'Connor's many talents kept him from being typecast; his long resume includes such diverse roles as Huckleberry Finn, Buster Keaton and Aladdin.

Leah Remini
THE KING OF QUEENS

The King of Queens
7:30 P.M. ON CBS

To godparent or not to godparent — that is the question. Serving as godfather to Deacon and Kelly's baby is an offer Doug (Kevin James) can't refuse. Carrie (Leah Remini), however, fears the role of godmother carries too much responsibility and says no. But soon the guilt takes over, and she's desperate to find a way to get asked again in the encore of "Parent Trapped."

The Kennedy Center Honors: A Celebration of the Performing Arts
8 P.M. ON CBS

The Kennedy Center has made impressive choices for its final round of honors in the 1900s. The class of '99 has an international flavor as well, with Scottish-born actor Sean Connery and the great Dane of musical comics, Victor Borge, among the five honorees. The others are Jason Robards; Judith Jamison; and Stevie Wonder. Walter Cronkite hosts the quintuple tribute.

Movie: All the Winters That Have Been
8 P.M. ON LIFE

A federal agent who fell for a beautiful half-American Indian artist 20 years earlier vows to win her back. She called off their budding romance when she learned he had come to arrest her brother. Now she's the one with a secret that could destroy their chances of rekindling the affair. Richard Chamberlain, Karen Allen and Hal Holbrook star.

Thursday's Best Bets

Greatest Sports Moments/48 Hours
7 P.M. ON CBS

Four weeks after helping "Sports Illustrated" crown Muhammad Ali sportsman of the century, the network hosts one last year-end celebration of athletic greatness, this time focusing on memorable events. Next up, a special two-hour edition of the newsmagazine gets an early start on another memorable event: the impending arrival of Y2K around the world.

Movie: Wolf
7 P.M. ON FOX

Bedeviled by personal and professional crises, New York book editor Will Randall (Jack Nicholson) discovers his wild side after being bitten by a wolf. Michelle Pfeiffer, James Spader and Kate Nelligan also star in this sophisticated, contemporary werewolf tale with plenty of ironic bite. Mike Nichols ("Primary Colors," "The Birdcage") directed the 1994 horror drama.

Investigative Reports
8 P.M. ON A&E

"Guns in America: Gun Life" is one of several special episodes from June on firearms and the people who use them. Host Bill Kurtis visits with a variety of armed Americans, including hunters, militia members and crime-wary citizens. A trip to a convention sponsored by "Soldier of Fortune" magazine introduces a group of Japanese visitors enthralled by the U.S. gun culture.

Bill Maher
POLITICALLY INCORRECT

Movie: Carlito's Way
8 P.M. ON USA

Academy Award-winning actor Al Pacino stars in this complex 1993 drama, based on two novels by Edwin Torres, about a Puerto Rican crime czar trying to go straight after his release from prison. Pacino is excellent in the title role, but a virtually unrecognizable Sean Penn steals the show as a sleazy lawyer. Penelope Ann Miller also stars.

Stark Raving Mad
8:30 P.M. ON NBC

Henry (Neil Patrick Harris) tries to fix up Ian (Tony Shalhoub) with the waitress (Sabrina Boudot) at his favorite diner. Her folks love him, but when they realize he's not a hot romantic prospect, he becomes persona non grata. This isn't just a personal crisis; it's a career setback, as that diner is Ian's favorite hideout for writing. Henry has to patch things up or risk a relapse of Ian's writer's block.

Politically Incorrect
11:36 A.M. ON ABC

Real-people talk and clever play-acting highlight a special edition of Bill Maher's lighthearted talk show, which kicks off the network's celebration of the year 2000's arrival. Shelley Long, Gilbert Gottfried, Paul Rodriguez, Rod Steiger and Michael McKean play Joan of Arc, Napoleon Bonaparte, Tomas de Torquemada, Benito Mussolini and Sigmund Freud, respectively, while Maher takes the role of an MTV VJ putting a music-video spin on the millennium.

Friday's Best Bets

PBS Millennium 2000
3:40 A.M. ON PBS

Starting with the arrival of midnight in the first time zone and continuing until the whole world has said, "Happy New Year," PBS' Y2K coverage is 25 hours of eye-catching ceremonies, ear-pleasing music and thought-provoking commentary from around the globe. Highlights include millennium ceremonies on a sacred Maori mountain in New Zealand and Inca ruins in Peru, a freedom celebration in South Africa, and performances by singers Nana Mouskouri and Kiri Te Kanawa. Journalist Gwen Ifill ("The Newshour With Jim Lehrer") hosts coverage of Europe's celebrations, then comic, columnist and commentator Will Durst puts his own cheeky spin on North America's New Year's Eve.

ABC 2000
5:30 A.M. ON ABC

No matter where in the world you are, ABC's got your millennium right here. Coverage of Y2K's grand entrance begins in the South Pacific, where midnight strikes first. Then the microphone is passed to a succession of correspondents around the globe as each time zone hits the milestone. There's plenty of music throughout the millennium marathon, from Billy Joel in New York to Annie Lennox in England to Aretha Franklin in Japan. And in keeping with tradition, Dick Clark is in Manhattan for the usual "New Year's Rockin' Eve" festivities as midnight Eastern time approaches.

ABC 2000

Millennium Special
8 P.M. ON NBC

The network is taking hourly breaks throughout the day to cover the arrival of 2000 around the world, but things kick into high gear in prime time, starting with this two-hour special hosted by Tom Brokaw and Katie Couric. It includes coverage of the worldwide party, interviews with newsmakers and updates on the Y2K situation.

Apocalypse When?
9 P.M. ON TLC

Many whose religious beliefs include a doomsday, judgment day or Second Coming are convinced that it'll happen in this milestone year. As the clock ticks toward the big moment, scientists, historians and believers offer their take on these predictions. Among other things, the special points out that the calendar has undergone some adjustments since Christ's time, so the 2,000-year anniversary of his birth was several years ago.

Fox 2000
11 P.M. ON FOX

It's party time, but we also need to keep an eye on that pesky Y2K bug. Fox obliges with a lively New Year's Eve celebration that combines entertainment and news updates as the year 2000 makes its entrance. Brit Hume and Paula Zahn anchor the coverage from New York's Times Square. There's a performance in L.A. by the Red Hot Chili Peppers and regular updates from the Y2K watchers in the nation's capital.

Saturday's Best Bets

College Football
3:30 P.M. ON ABC

Celebrate the new millennium by watching two of the oldest and most storied of college football's bowl games — the 86th Rose Bowl and the 66th Orange Bowl. The Rose Bowl will feature Big Ten champs Wisconsin Badgers and career NCAA rushing leader Ron Dayne taking on the underdog Pac-10 champion Stanford Cardinal and flanker Troy Walters. Wisconsin defeated UCLA in last year's Rose Bowl and this one could provide a similar offensive outburst. Next, the Orange Bowl matchup pits SEC winner Alabama against at-large pick Michigan. Tide running back Shaun Alexander scored a national-best 24 touchdowns, while quarterback Tom Brady and Anthony Thomas have led the Wolverines.

Movie: The Bodyguard
7 P.M. ON CBS

Singing superstar Whitney Houston made her motion-picture acting debut in this 1992 suspense drama about a former Secret Service agent (Kevin Costner) who falls in love with the music diva (Houston) who has hired him to protect her.

Breaking the Magician's Code: Magic's Biggest Secrets Finally Revealed 3
7 P.M. ON FOX

The Masked Magician — who has since been unmasked — blows the lid off more popular illusions in his third special, which premiered in 1998. Among other things, he reveals how a tank can be made to "disappear" and how a bullet is caught in the mouth. Immediately following is an encore of his fourth special, in which the Masked One explains the secrets of sawing an elephant in half and escaping the guillotine.

Movie: Jurassic Park
7 P.M. ON NBC

Prehistoric DNA is used to clone real, live dinosaurs for a one-of-a-kind theme park. But some fatal flaws in the plan threaten to destroy not only the park and everyone in it, but the outside world as well. For one thing, the big lizards are supposed to be all the same sex, and therefore unable to reproduce, but guess what. Jeff Goldblum, Sam Neill, Laura Dern and Richard Attenborough star in this sci-fi blockbuster, with Wayne Knight as an employee who gets his gruesome comeuppance for trying to smuggle the precious material out of the park.

Biography
7 P.M. ON A&E
